

Noah Kim

Associate Revenue Controller

noah.kim@example.com | +1 (555) 054-7731 | Denver, CO

Summary

Associate revenue controller with 3 years providing specialist control and assurance support across billing-to-revenue processes – reviewing high-risk transactions, validating billing rules, and supporting reconciliations with audit-ready documentation.

Experience

Associate Revenue Controller — Summit Revenue Operations 2022 – Present

- Review high-risk billing and revenue items against contracts, policies and SOPs, validating pricing logic and revenue recognition alignment.
- Identify discrepancies in transaction processing and escalate issues for timely resolution.
- Perform billing-to-revenue first-line control checks, supporting execution of control activities across O2C processes.
- Produce accurate control check evidence, reconciliation support, and variance explanations for management review.
- Maintain complete, audit-ready PBC packs and evidence folders, and track control breaches through to resolution.

Revenue Analyst — Summit Revenue Operations

2021 – 2022

- Supported billing reconciliations and basic control checks under senior analyst guidance.
- Assisted with documentation for internal audit reviews.

Skills

Revenue and billing process controls, control framework compliance, reconciliations, risk and exception reporting, digital fluency (ERP, Excel, reporting tools), documentation and organization.

Education

B.S. in Finance — University of Colorado Denver